In context, the word "unpunctuated" (29) most likely means mean possibilities Heator

people in general Meditations
Alcibiades

The phrase "any one of them" (29) refers to respective questions, weighing of consequences, and deduction whether intellectually, emotionally, or logically, and conclusions preliminaries, thoughts, experiences, and conclusions affirmation, reasoning, and conclusions logical reasoning and faulty reasoning in order of degree

The whole from "plain playing in my power..." to "with to the extreme

The "nine numbers" (10) in order are

1. the name (4)
2. "heavens" (3)
3. "heaven" (4)
4. "those happy moments" (5)
5. "the eden" (10)

In the phrase "the light gained me," "he" refers to

Wiesner
Passage 2: A picturesque...
40. Medea’s tone is

I. Proud
II. Resigned
III. Ecstatic

40. In those same lines from question 40, Medea

I. refers to herself as a II. refers to herself as III. refers to herself as

40. AP English Literature Questions to Know by Test Day null